

FOUNDER • LIBRARY BUREAU

MELVIL 1876 DEWEY

♥ Among Melvil Dewey's many significant accomplishments, in 1876 he founded Library Bureau in Boston, Mass., "for the definite purpose of furnishing libraries with equipment and supplies of unvarying correctness and reliability."

♥ A dozen decades later, Library Bureau returns to its origins in Massachusetts. The same dedication and commitment to produce innovative, versatile furniture continues today. Whether you are furnishing an elementary school library or a prestigious private institution, Library Bureau will ensure the quality, service and innovative spirit your plans deserve.

LB LIBRARY BUREAU
LIBRARY AND OFFICE FURNISHINGS

A MedaForm Company 172 Industrial Road • P.O. Box 448 • Fitzburg, MA • 978-345-7942 • 800-221-6638 • FAX 978-345-0188

<http://www.librarybureau.com>